.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue appropriate writ or order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the letter No. 10660/LTR-2/2004-1, dt. 24-11-2004 of the 4th respondent in returning the revision petition filed by the petitioner U/s 6 of A.P. Scheduled Areas Land Transfer Regulations as illegal, arbitrary and unjust and consequently direct the 4th respondent to entertain the revision filed by the petitioner and dispose of the same on merits and to pass such other order or orders

Counsel for the Petitioner :MR.K.VENKATESH

Counsel for the Respondents: GP FOR SOCIAL WELFARE

The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

ORDER:

Challenging the proceedings dated 24-11-2004 issued by the Additional Secretary to the Government in returning the revision petition dated 10-11-2004 filed by the petitioner, the present writ petition is filed.

Admittedly, the appeal lies to the Additional agent to the Government and as a matter of fact, additional agent to the government passed the order in C.M.A.No. 4 of 2003 dated 29-06-2004. Thereafter, against the orders of the additional agent to the government, only revision lies. Therefore, the fourth respondent is directed to entertain the revision petition, if it is otherwise in order, and pass appropriate orders in accordance with the rules and thereafter the said revision petition has to be disposed of within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
